There Goes a Tenner

("The Dreaming" 1982)

Verse 1

(Transkription: Hans Peter Reutter; Verbesserungsvorschläge an: ich@hans-peter-reutter.de) We're waiting.

Verse 2

We're waiting.

We got the job sussed.
This shop's shut for business.
The look-out happened the car, but kept the engines running.

Three beeps means trouble's coming. I hope you remember to treat the gelignite.

Ten-derly for me. I'm having dreams about things not going right. Let's leave in plenty of time to-night.
Both my partners act like actors.

You are Bogart, He is George Raft, that leaves Cagney and...
Lead 2

Chorus

Pad 2

Voc.

Brs.

Dr.

Ch.

Ch.

Fretless

Ba.

Drum mach.

Verse 3

male voice, spoken:

"What about Edward G.?

We're waiting

You blow the safe up.

Then all I know is I wake up.

Covered in rubble,
one of the rabble needs mum-ny. The go-vern-ment will ne-ver find, the mo-ney. I've been here
male voices, whispered

What's all this then?

What's all this then?

What are we go-na do with the pa-per[?] I've got it.[?]

all day, a star in strange ways. A part from the KB, whispered car-ry me,
po-ckets floating in the breeze. Oh, there goes a tener. Hey, look! There's a

There's a ten-shil-ling note. re-

member them? That's when we used to vote for him.